It is six years since his last visit to Edmonton, and he has been pleasantly engaged since his arrival in renewing his acquaintance with the old timers here. He is surprised and delighted with the progress made here since his last visit. Six years ago he says he clearly remembers three or four houses at that time composed of the whole of South Edmonton. The developments and improvements in our town he considers remarkable, especially the number of fine buildings, and the excellent streets. Mr. Wadsworth has gained 64 pounds in weight since his first commenced his work in this country and he attributes his perfect health and increased weight to the fine air and water here. He is on his usual tour of visits to the Indian reserves of the Northwest.

The Toronto Globe says: "Mr. Neil Burton was entirely successful in his efforts to entertain. In the readings he gave he showed himself to be gifted with strong literary power. Mr. Burton will appear in Robertson Hall on Friday, May 15th.

J. R. FERRIS a former resident of Edmonton had a narrow escape from death by the explosion of a powder magazine in the Broadwater mine at Neilhart, Montana on April 18th. He was one of 22 men who were going on shift at the time of the explosion, and of whom few escaped without scratches or bruises. Eight young men were killed and two fatally injured in the explosion.

COWELL ODDEN arrived on Monday's train from Melbourne, Australia, and will leave in a few days for the Peace River country where he intends to spend about three months hunting. Mr. Odden is a native of Waco, Texas and has been travelling for three years, his arrival in Edmonton practically completing a journey around the world. He left Johannesburg a week before Jameson's raid, and says that when he was there the reformers in the city were all well armed and he gathered from them that their intention at that time was to go out and assist Jameson. Every man in Johannesburg carried a "six-shooter" and the Boers commonly carry their rifles as well wherever they go. The feeling amongst the Uitlanders was at fever heat against the Boer government when Mr. Odden was there, because they had no voice whatever in public affairs and were not allowed to have schools in which their own language could be taught. The city of Johannesburg itself is a fine stone built town, and full of intense excitement continually in connection with the wonderful success of its mines, apart from the political agitation.

ALEX. MACDONALD, one of Winnipeg's ex-mayors and an old campaigner in Dominion elections, came in on Monday's train. Mr. Macdonald is on a tour of visits to his branch stores, and has just been through Southern Alberta, and Western Assiniboia. He is known in Manitoba as a keen and shrewd observer and as a politician the opinions he forms of the prospects in any constituency he visits carry considerable weight. In Southern Alberta Mr. Macdonald visited Lethbridge, Gleichen, Macleod and Calgary, and the feeling in all those places is that the time has come for a change in the administration of affairs in Canada. The liberals in Lethbridge are very active, and the liberal prospects there are excellent. The conservatives have not yet organized. At Macleod the conservatives have elected their officers and a working committee, but the same feeling is current there as at other places, that a change is desirable. In Calgary the "silent vote" is expected to go solid for the liberal, and leading men on the other side admit that it is "doubtful as to which side will win in Alberta." In Banff, Camrose and other places in that section the canvass which has been made is almost entirely in favor of the liberal candidate. Mr. Macdonald expresses it as his opinion that in Southern Alberta the prospects of the liberals are exceedingly bright and he expects the poll to prove that they have won along the line there. Mr. Macdonald has not decided to continue the business in Cameron's store here after the stock has been disposed of.

W. R. BAKER's private car comes up on to-day's train.

W. T. HENRIE was arrested to-day on a warrant for non-payment of costs in a case concerning ownership of a buggy which was taken sometime ago. Col. Jarvis, J. P., is sitting on the case at South Edmonton this afternoon.

A COLLISION occurred last night between a miners raft and Humboldt's ferry scow. The raft was made of logs and was loaded with a tent, provisions, and mining implements belonging to four Scandinavians, Chisholm, the ferryman, when he saw they were ill-clothed to collide with his scow, called out to them, when they immediately dropped their oars and allowed the raft to drift with the current. Chisholm on seeing they would need help, waited for them, and when the raft struck the scow all four men were thrown into the river and the raft was so broken that all their implements were lost, and only a keg of syrup, a side of bacon and one sack of flour was saved out of their provisions. Three of the men remained their position on the raft, but the fourth, an old man, sunk three times before Chisholm got him back to safety, and he was so exhausted that he had to remain in the ferryman's shack all night. The men are all strangers and apparently spent their money in buying their outfit and provisions. They seemed to know very little about managing their craft, which is now near Fraser's mill.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, MAY 7TH, 1896.

IN THE WEST.

Referring to the prospects of the liberal party in Canada the Globe sums up the position in the West as follows:

It appears to be beyond question that the liberal candidates in Manitoba, the Northwest Territories and British Columbia will receive a generous support from the people of that country, who have been so long misrepresented by a gang of time serving politicians who have feared to make the wants of the country known lest the government would be embarrassed. A member who really represented the west would never have tired in his efforts to secure every just consideration for his constituents, nor would he have lost the opportunities that a place in parliament give him of inviting public attention to the great possibilities of the prairie wheat and grazing areas and of the mineral and timber resources of British Columbia. It was an interesting sight last session to see Hon. Joseph Martin standing up in parliament and presenting to the consideration of the government local grievances from British Columbia which the half dozen representatives of that province had neglected or refused to bring forward. Long years of governmental neglect, the perpetuation of a fiscal policy unsuited to the conditions of the country and the attempt to impose separate schools upon an unwilling province have combined to arouse the people of the west to a full sense of their opportunities and responsibilities. The members of the Manitoba government will take an active part in the campaign in Manitoba and the Territories, and it may be taken for granted that they will give a good account of themselves. The reception tendered Mr. Martin upon his return from Ottawa to Winnipeg on Saturday night was more than a testimonial to that gentleman; it was a demonstration of confidence in the liberal party. The differences between the liberals and the patrons of the west, which, if allowed to continue throughout the campaign, might have defeated the aims of both, are being adjusted, and the opponents of the government will face the common foe with the strength born of union. In some of the western ridings where a considerable period of time has elapsed since the nominations the liberal candidates have called new conventions in order to secure a re-endorsement in view of altered political conditions. These meetings have been most enthusiastic. This was particularly the case in Western Assiniboia, where Mr. A. Hitchcock is the liberal candidate. Mr. Davin's course in opposing the remedial bill, then voting for it and then pretending to oppose it, presents him in a most ridiculous light before his constituents. They are accustomed to his political vagaries, but it is doubtful if they can tolerate him any longer. Mr. Laurier's election in Saskatchewan is assured, and the same may be said of Mr. Oliver in North Alberta. In eastern Assiniboia, where the conservatives refused a renomination to their representative, Mr. McDonald, the liberals and patrons have united on a strong candidate, Mr. J. M. Douglas, of Moosomin.

Since the above appeared J. A. Grant has been selected by the convention as liberal candidate for Western Assiniboia instead of A. H. Hitchcock, and the conservatives of Eastern Assiniboia have selected Mr. McDonald.

SOUTH AFRICA.

A number of telegrams were produced at the trial of the reformers at Pretoria implicating Cecil Rhodes and others, and a cable from London to the Free Press of May 2nd says: The Cape Town "Cryptogram" as yesterday's Transvaal revelation is now termed here, is producing an increasing sensation, coupled with deep humiliation. Cecil Rhodes, who, by the publication of the Pretoria telegrams exchanged between various people just previous to the invasion of the Transvaal by Dr. Jameson and his hitherto, is so clearly shown to have been the head and front of the conspiracy, was not only premier of Cape colony, at the time but also a member of the privy council. As the matter stands, Rhodes and other officers of the British Chartered South Africa Company, are liable to be arrested, and if possible, the charter of the company will be revoked. It is said the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, got an inkling of the affair when Rhodes was in England recently, and that the sudden departure of the ex-premier of Cape Colony for South Africa, at the time Dr. Jameson was expected to reach this country, was quite unknown to Mr. Chamberlain. Indeed, it is asserted, the latter did not know Rhodes had any idea of leaving England until he was on the high seas on board the German steamship, otherwise "the Napoleon of South Africa," might have been compelled to await the arrival of Dr. Jameson and the investigation which followed. Mr. Chamberlain has instructed Sir Robert Martin, who is now in command of the forces of the British South Africa company, to provide that neither he nor any officer or troopers in the employ of the company, can in future hold shares in any South Africa venture.

THE WAR IN CUBA.

A cable from Cuba to Key West, Florida, states: Advice received here state that a notable victory has been won by insurgents commanded by General Calixto Garcia in the province of Santiago de Cuba. General Garcia's forces fell upon the Spanish column commanded by General Munoz and almost annihilated them. The battle occurred near Sanga on the banks of the river Cauto. General Garcia was moving west with 1,500 men, intending to cross the river. Munoz was at Manzanillo and ordered gunboats to proceed up the river to co-operate. Garcia heard of Munoz's movements and effected a junction with the columns of Rabbi and Rodinghaus, thereby increasing the forces at his command nearly 3,500 men. Garcia stationed men near Zanja, when the Spanish column under Munoz appeared, struck front and flank, doubling it up on the river. The Spanish were taken by surprise and many rushed into the river and were drowned. The fire of the insurgents also did great execution. When the annihilation of Munoz's column seemed certain, gunboats appeared and saved the remnants. Over 300 of Munoz's men were killed by insurgent bullets or drowned, and about 400 wounded. The Spaniards retreated down the river to Manzanillo, where they were protected by the gunboats. The insurgent loss is small. General Garcia then crossed the Cauto and is now proceeding west.

MARTIN FOR WINNIPEG.

In accepting the nomination for the city of Winnipeg the Hon. J. Martin said there was nothing at the present time of which he felt prouder than of the fact that they had a great leader at their head. There was no member of parliament but was completely satisfied with the manner in which Hon. Mr. Laurier conducted the affairs of the Liberal party; he was admitted by old politicians to be the most competent leader the party ever had. When that party came to select a leader they paid no attention to questions of religion and race. Mr. Laurier was a Roman Catholic and a Frenchman; he was selected, not because he was such, but because he was considered the most competent man. To-day he might be the strongest man in the province of Quebec if he would bow the knee to the church authorities; but he declined to do so. With every respect to the church to which he belonged, he recognized the fact that he was the head of a great party and that party sought to place him at the head of the Canadian people. He must forget that he is a Catholic, that he is a Frenchman, and remember that he is a trustee of the great principles which lie at the foundation of the great party which he represents. He (Mr. Martin) had been charged with hostility to the Roman Catholic faith and to the French people, but he had always protested that his action in abolishing the official use of the French language, and in supporting the national school bill was not in any way dictated by any aversion to the Roman Catholic faith, or to the French language or French people; and he was very glad to show this in a practical way by serving under a leader who combined the two.

An article in the Times on the late Shah calls to mind that at the beginning of his reign, he put to death by thousands the members of the Babi sect, whose crusade against the corruption of the public and private manners in Persia was so popular as to become a menace to the government. The chief apprehensions that now arise, says the Times, "are lest the new Shah's eldest brother, Zil-Es-Sultan, should attempt to dispute the accession. (The late Shah is succeeded by his second son and not the eldest son.) Zil-Es-Sultan is governor of Ispahan, and for a long time was the virtual ruler of Southern Persia, till the late Shah, in 1890, greatly reduced his power and disbanded his regiments.

It is stated that D'Alton McCarthy has consented to become the anti-remedialist candidate for Brandon. Mr. Daly's constituency, W. A. Macdonald is spoken of as the conservative candidate.

RED DEER.

Spring is very late here, and the trails are in very bad condition. We had a snowstorm this morning which has made them worse.

R. C. Brumpton has sold his ranch and will proceed to the east where he has secured a position as postmaster.

H. T. Cherry has been confined to his bed for the past month, but is now able to get round again.

The ice has gone out of the river here, and made great havoc in doing so. It swept away McMurray's boom and damaged both the railway and traffic bridges considerably. Had it not been for the railway bridge the traffic bridge would have been swept away entirely, as it is there is only one sound pier left under the traffic bridge. The ice climbed up on the piers and nearly everyone in town went down to see the sight.

Several townsmen are busy learning to ride their bicycles.

J. Burch and wife are expecting to leave soon for the Kootenay on a trip.

Hek. Gaetz will probably sell his farm soon and return to the east.

Bell Bros have sold their farms to some people from the east, and have gone to Toronto, where they have a brother in the city police.

G. F. Motion has been elected delegate to the high court of Foresters which meets at Regina in June.

GENERAL NEWS.

May day riots in Vienna were such as to necessitate the calling out of the military.

It is proposed to invite the members of the British Association for the advancement of science to visit Manitoba in 1897 when the annual congress will be held in Toronto.

A Melbourne, Australia, despatch states that during the first fortnight of this year under the reviewed tariff, the customs receipts were £138,416, or £20,000 above the estimate, and that amount is, therefore set off against the £58,000 decrease for the six months ended 31st December last.

A cable from Lisbon of April 27th, says: In the chamber of peers to-day the minister of foreign affairs, Senor Luis De Sevelar, announced that the Portuguese government had given the sanction to England's transporting arms and ammunition on the railroad from Beira, Portuguese East Africa, to the frontier of Rhodesia.

It is reported that Lord Dunraven has disposed of his interest in the yacht Valkyrie III to Harry Macdonald, one of the syndicate which built her. When William K. Vanderbilt was in the Mediterranean recently on the Valiant, it is said he met Macdonald and agreed to race the Defender against Valkyrie III in a series of races this season.

A dispatch from Cape Town to the Daily Telegraph, says: "The latest news from Matabeleland is very encouraging. The Dutch and English there are fighting side by side and the former are taking a leading part, owing to their knowledge of the native methods of warfare." This indicates that the former refusal of the Burgers to join the English, owing to the refusal of the latter to allow them to form a separate command, their own commandant has been reconsidered, and that the whites are all fighting together. The Daily Telegraph dispatch further says: "At the opening of the Cape parliament, the speech of Sir Hercules Robinson, who dwelt upon the lamentable results of the Jameson raid."

A London cable of April 28th says: First lord of the treasury, A. J. Balfour, in reply to Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt, liberal leader in the house of commons, said arrangements for conditions of arbitration with respect to Venezuela and other questions, were matters which Great Britain and the U. S. had in view during the recent negotiations. Mr. Balfour added that the latest communication from the U. S. arrived on Friday last and was now under consideration. Continuing the first lord of the treasury said the government would deal with both the general question of arbitration, also with the special question connected with Venezuela, and it was confidently hoped by patience and tact on both sides, a peaceful and satisfactory solution of the matters would be attained.

The Province says: The desire to reach Alaska since the rush for the gold fields commenced, has had the effect of starting many men northward with absolutely no idea of the hardships and dangers which they would encounter, says a San Francisco dispatch. Alaska's mining region is about the roughest place in the world. Supplies are extremely scarce and extravagantly high. The mines are difficult to reach and the digging season is short and treacherous. Only those expeditions which have been thoroughly organized and perfectly equipped have thus far succeeded. The latest scheme is that of thirty San Franciscans calling themselves the Emma and Louisa Gold mining company, who have purchased a schooner and set sail for Cook Inlet. Here the craft will be safely anchored and will be the home of the miners.

A cable from Washington to the Free Press says: The secretary of state has received a despatch from the United States ambassador at Berlin, in which he says that on April 4, 1896, a new treaty of commerce and navigation between Germany and Japan was signed by the German secretary of state for foreign affairs and the Japanese minister, the text of which has not been made public. It is reported, however, that Japan granted material reductions in duties upon certain manufactured articles imported from Germany, while Germany grants to Japan merely the treatment accorded "most favored nations." It is also stated that certain provisions have been made which enable Germany to hold real estate in Japan with greater permanency and security. The treaty is to go into effect as soon as ratification is received. A convention is also said to have been made in regard to patents and trade marks, and another on the subject of consular jurisdiction, similar to other conventions recently made by Japan which are expected to go into effect in 1899.

THE CABINET.

The new ministry is constituted as follows:

Sir Charles Tupper, premier and secretary of state.

Hon. Geo. E. Foster, minister of finance.

Hon. John Costigan, minister of marine and fisheries.

Hon. John Haggart, minister of railways and canals.

Hon. A. R. Angers, president of the council.

Hon. W. B. Ives, minister of trade and commerce.

Hon. A. R. Dickey, minister of justice.

Hon. W. Montague, minister of agriculture.

Hon. J. J. Wood, minister of customs.

Hon. E. G. Prior, minister of inland revenue.

Hon. Alphonse Desjardins, minister of public works.

Hon. L. O. Taillon, postmaster general.

Hon. Hugh John Macdonald, minister of the interior.

Hon. Col. Tisdale, minister of militia.

Senators Smith, Ferguson and J. J. Ross, are ministers without portfolio.

The ceremony of swearing in lasted until nearly 2 o'clock, at which hour the flag was lowered on the vice-regal office and his excellency returned to Rideau Hall.

Three members of the late administration are not in the new cabinet. They are Sir Adolph Caron, Hon. J. Oimmet and Hon. T. Mayne Davidson. Their places are taken by Hon. L. O. Taillon, ex-premier of Quebec, and Col. Tisdale, and Mr. Hugh John Macdonald.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Hon. J. Martin was enthusiastically nominated by the liberals in Winnipeg.

W. W. Macdonald has been nominated by the conservatives of Eastern Assiniboia.

Major McGillivray, who carried North Ontario for the government against the McCarthys and liberal candidate in the fall, says he will not run for the Commons again, being unable to afford to neglect his business. He thought a local man would carry the riding.

North Essex is well supplied with candidates for parliament. Wm. McGregor is the liberal standard bearer. D. W. Mason is independent, D. B. Odele is the conservative nominee, O. Reame the patron candidate, and A. McNeil the independence party man.

The first assignment of ballot boxes to be used in the election has been sent west from Ottawa. The Territories will vote by ballot for the first time. Altogether about 7,500 boxes are required to receive the vote of the Dominion. About 2,000 new ones have been purchased.

At a recent liberal meeting in Gleichen officers and committees were elected and resolutions adopted endorsing the policy of the Hon. W. V. Laurier, and the liberal party, and endorsing the candidature of Frank Oliver for Alberta. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed throughout.

The national policy was going to make everyone rich; yet there are to-day no less than 450 empty stores in Toronto, several tall chimneys smokeless and hundreds of tenement houses to be detected. Toronto, however, is not the only city in which such a condition of affairs is to be found.

H. F. McDougall, who was Sir Charles Tupper's colleague for Cape Breton in parliament, has been appointed commissioner of customs, Ottawa; Mr. A. McKay, ex-M. P. for Hamilton, has been appointed inspector of customs at Hamilton, and Mr. Boyle, ex-M. P. (Monck), collector of customs at Niagara Falls, subject to his Excellency's approval.

An Ottawa telegram to the Winnipeg Tribune says: The parliament just deceased made the following appointments from among its members during the existing five years: Kirkpatrick, of Frontenac, lieutenant-governor; Jamieson, Lanark, judge; Mackintosh, Ottawa, lieutenant-governor; Baker, Missisquoi, senator; Curran, Montreal, judge; Bain, Soulanges, inspector of post offices; Chapleau, Terrebonne, lieutenant-governor; McKee, Cape Breton, senator; Burns, Gloucester, senator; Dewdney, Assiniboia, lieutenant-governor; Patterson, Huron, lieutenant-governor; Wood, Westmorland, senator; Adams, Northumberland, senator; Grey, Cardwell, customs collector; Masson, Grey, judge; Temple, York, N. B., senator; Carling, London, senator; Smith, Montreal, high commissioner.
